THeſe are to give Notice, That from the 25th of this Inſtant June, The Poſt will paſs thrice a week betwixt England and Ireland, and in like manner betwixt Dublin and the ſeverall Poſt-Stages in the Country, The two Poſts will continue on the ſame days they now are, And the third to ſet out on Thurſday Night, and to return hither on VVedneſday Morning in every week. Theſe are farther to Signifie that from the ſaid 25th Inſtant the Poſt-Office will be kept at the place where it formerly was in High-Street. Whether all perſons concern'd are required to bring in their Letters, and diſpatches by Eleven of the Clock one every Poſt Night,

In Dublin this 15th of June. 1683.

George Warburton,

08-2304